CAYMAN ALPHA

THE VOICE OF THE LEADING FUNDS DOMICILE

A new magazine from the Cayman Independent

The global funds industry continues to evolve and the Cayman Islands remains at the centre of institutional investment structures and cross-border capital formation. Cayman Alpha is a dedicated new magazine focused on the Cayman Islands funds industry, delivering credible, well-informed coverage of the ideas, structures, trends and developments shaping the global alternative investment landscape.

What to expect:

Insightful features on hedge funds, private equity, venture capital and alternative investments. Industry profiles and interviews. Regulatory and legislative coverage. Fund structuring and governance developments. Emerging trends in institutional capital and global markets. Perspectives from fund managers, advisors, regulators and industry leaders.

Launching October 2026

The inaugural issue of Cayman Alpha will be distributed electronically through Cayman Finance's database of financial services professionals and our own database of 5,000+ contacts locally and globally. Cayman Alpha will be launched at the Cayman Finance funds breakfast & panel in New York on November 12 to all delegates.

Your message will reach investment funds professionals, institutional investors, fund managers, legal and financial advisors, allocators and key decision-makers actively establishing, managing, advising on and investing in Cayman Islands funds structures.

Who reads Cayman Alpha?

Fund managers, institutional investors, investment advisors, family offices, legal and compliance professionals, administrators, regulators and decision-makers evaluating the Cayman Islands as a domicile for investment funds and cross-border capital structures.

Whether your audience is already operating in Cayman or considering Cayman for future structures, Cayman Alpha connects you directly with the global funds community.

If you are a funds professional, institutional investor, service provider, regulator or advisor, based in the Cayman Islands or internationally, Cayman Alpha is your essential source for investment funds insight with a Cayman perspective.
